- F. ensure that any money the Society requests from Its members is received.

Committee members may assist each other in their tasks whenever necessary.

The Committee shall hold, as a minimum, one Committee meeting per term, in which they should discuss the current status of the Committee, plan events, and vote on Committee resolutions, which require a majority vote to pass.

5 - The Senior Treasurer

In addition, there shall be a Senior Treasurer, who shall be a Fellow of Queens' College. The Senior Treasurer shall be appointed by the elected members of the Committee within 30 days after each AGM.

6 - General Meetings

The Society shall hold an Annual General Meeting (AGM) during each Academic Year. The AGM shall be held in Cambridge during Easter Term. All Members shall be entitled to attend and vote at any General Meeting. At least ten days written notice shall be given to members before the AGM.

The AGM shall approve minutes of the last General Meeting and the Society's Accounts for the preceding year, elect the Committee for the year ahead, ensure the passing down of all relevant accounts and documents, and conduct such other business as necessary.

Every motion at a General Meeting shall be proposed and seconded by at least one other member. Voting shall be by secret ballot and if there are more than two candidates for a post or more than two options on a motion, voting shall be by Single Transferable Vote.

An Extraordinary General Meeting (EGM) may be called at any time by the committee, or by at least five members. Ten days written notice shall be given to members before an EGM is held. The notice must: (1) clearly state the purpose of the EGM, (2) state the date (which must fall within Full Term), time and venue (which must be Queens'). An EGM shall have the same powers as an AGM.

The President, or in their absence the Vice-President, shall take the Chair of any General Meeting. In the absence of the President and the Vice-President, the meeting shall elect a Chairperson for that meeting. The quorum for a General Meeting shall be four members and a written record of every General Meeting shall be kept.

7 - Financial Matters

The Society shall maintain a banking account with a suitable Bank to hold the Society's funds.

It shall be the responsibility of the Treasurer to ensure that all money received is properly accounted for, that the Society's financial records are kept in good order, and that the Senior Treasurer is a registered signatory of the account so that access to it not easily lost.

The Senior Treasurer shall not be liable for any financial debt or other obligation of the Society unless they have personally authorised such a debt in writing.

8 - Changes to the Constitution

Amendments to this constitution may be proposed at any General Meeting, or by resolution of the Committee.

9 - Dissolution

The Society may be dissolved at a General Meeting provided that at least twenty-one days written notice of the intention to dissolve the Society is given to the members. At least two thirds of those present and voting at the General Meeting must vote in favour of the Motion for Dissolution for it to be effective.

In the event of the dissolution of the society, the assets shall be transferred to another society of Queens' college with the most similar interests, or to the JCR.
